Quotes:

I have seen such an improvement at the school. When I have raised concerns, I have felt that they have been dealt with promptly. I feel my daughter is making great progress. Thank you.

New Teacher Brilliant, Listened to all my concerns and dealt with everything. My son has made progress in his handwriting for the first time ever.

I think the school has improved vastly over the last 2 years. Better led and managed and fewer staff turnovers therefore a better consistency for the pupils. Better communication to parents, better procedures and more opportunities for out of school activities - overall I am very pleased with the school.

I believe this school is a great school and my children love it here.

Since transferring schools I have seen a fantastic improvement in my children and see that the school values its pupils.

Keep aiming high and Thank you!
